

Animating Workout - Table of Contents

The Toon Boom Animation Workout Series

About The Animating Workout

The Drawing Component

- Workout Content
- Getting the Workout Scene

Part 1: Learning to Use the Drawing Tools

- Before You Begin
- Create a Scene
- Draw a Rough Version of the Tulip
- Cleaning Up Your Tulip
 - Using the Smooth Feature
 - Using the Contour Editor
- Producing the Right Petal
- Finishing Off the Tulip Bulb
- Drawing the Rest of the Flower
- What You've Learned So Far
- What's Next

Part 2: Animating The Tulip

- Before You Begin
- Opening Your Scene
- Preparing To Animate
 - Enabling the Onion Skinning
 - Enabling the Auto Light Table
 - Setting the Default Exposure in the Xsheet
- Drawing the Keys
 - Preview Your Animation
 - Adjusting the Timing of Your Movement
 - Renaming Your Keys
- Planning Your In-Betweens
 - Drawing the In-Betweens
- Cleaning Up Your Animation
- Summary
- What's Next
- Thank You

The Sceneplanning Component

- Workout Content
- Getting the Workout Scene

Part 1: The Ladybug

- Before You Begin
- Opening Your Scene
- Adding a Background to Your Scene
- Adding The Ladybug to Your Scene
- Animating the Ladybug to Fly in from Off screen
 - Attaching the Ladybug to a Peg
 - Setting the Ladybug's Start Position
 - Adding Keyframes to the Peg
 - Adjusting the Ladybug's Path
 - Making the Ladybug Hover Up and Down
- Adding a Blink to your Character
- What You've Learned So Far
- What's Next

Part 2: Adding the Tulip

- Adding Your Tulip to the Ladybug Scene
 - Synchronizing the Movement of the Tulip and the Ladybug
 - Making a Duplicate of the Tulip
 - Rendering a QuickTime® Movie of your Scene
- Summary
- Thank You